

Unit 6 Graphic Organizer 3

SS8H7cd: Civil Rights/WWI

Early Civil Rights Leaders

John Hope

- Leader in black community
- Pres. of Morehouse College & Atlanta Univ
- Committed to public education, equal housings/ job opportunities for blacks
- Supported full civil rights for blacks in a time when they were supposed to accept inequality.

Lugenia Burns Hope

- Social activist & community organizer
- Helped found Neighborhood Union to provide assistance to needy black families
- 1st VP of Atlanta chapter of NAACP

How did John/Lugenia Burns Hope feel about Washington's strategy for Civil Rights?

He did not agree with Washington's accommodation strategy.

What did DuBois, John/Lugenia Hope, and Washington all have in common?

They are all associated with improving education/lives of blacks in one way or another

Alonzo Herndon

- Born a slave, became sharecropper, then went to barbering school
- Became successful entrepreneur investing in real estate
- Owner of Atlanta Life Ins. Co.
- Atlanta's richest black man @ time of death

World War I

Reasons for the war

- Militarism
- Alliances
- Imperialism
- Nationalism

About the War

- European conflict
- final straw: assassination of Archduke and Archduchess of Austria Hungary...WWI began
- Pres. Wilson pledged to keep U.S. out of WWI during his reelection campaign

GA's role in the war

U.S. in WWI

- U.S. stayed out at first
- Lusitania sank by Germans & U.S. still stayed out
- U.S. entry into war after until Germany tried to ally with Mexico and attack U.S. (Zimmerman Telegram)
- U.S. entered toward the end and was benefited economically...boosted U.S. economy.

Georgia's Role

- Military bases
- Housed POW
- Agricultural Products
- More than 100,000 men/women to war effort

