

Lena Mae Moses Middle School IMPROVEMENT AT A GLANCE

Moses Middle School is named after Paulding County alumna and teacher Lena Mae Moses. Serving approximately 1,000 students, Moses Middle School believes learning is a priority and a shared responsibility by all stakeholders. We are building a community of parents, teachers, and students who are self directed and empowered Titans.

Mission

Engage, Inspire, and Prepare

At Moses Middle School we share a mission to ENGAGE students in learning to their full potential. We strive to INSPIRE titans to dream fearlessly because they have the potential to be anything. Finally, we want to PREPARE our community of learners for their future so they become lifelong learners in an ever-changing world.

Vision

To develop self-directed and empowered Titans.

Teachers, students, and parents share a vision to develop a community of individuals who come together, using their unique skills, to form a family who learns together. Each Titan has a skill that can help someone else. We want to empower our students to build a community that can use our diversity to strengthen and inspire others.

Beliefs

At Moses Middle School, we believe that learning is a priority and a shared responsibility by all stakeholders. This includes teachers, parents, students, staff, community leaders, and more. Student success results from the collaboration and communication of home, school, and community. Students learn best when actively engaged in a safe, positive environment which respects cultural differences and learning styles. Teachers facilitate and empower students to explore unlimited learning opportunities to include character, social, and emotional development. Moses Middle School leaders believe that professional development and staff morale empower teachers to maximize student learning.
