

What programs/supports are in place to help students?

In Paulding County School District, Title I schools provide:

- Teachers and/or Paraprofessionals who work with students who can benefit from additional support
- Additional Learning resources for students
- Professional learning resources and opportunities for teachers
- Resources and activities designed for, and available for all parents to access as they support their child academically