Obstacle Course Demo

Two sets of student/dad pairs will demonstrate the responsibility of leading their blindfolded dads safely through the obstacle courses.

Let's Talk About It

Dad: What are some of your responsibilities at school and at home?

Child: When have you taken responsibility for a mistake you've made?

For both: How does it help others when you are responsible?

Obstacle Course – Everyone

Six obstacle courses are setup on each side of the gym. Students will pick up the obstacle course map and will be responsible for leading their blindfolded dads safety through the obstacle courses by shouting directions to them. Once they succeed they may move to another course on their side of the gym.

Huddle Up!

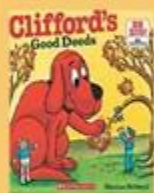

Gather with your family and encourage everyone to think of 2 things they were responsible for today. Talk about what those responsibilities are and how often they occur. What daily responsibilities do you normally have versus weekly responsibilities?
