

LET'S TALK ABOUT:

Teachability

Dad: What is a hard activity or subject that you are learning? How can I help you get better?

Child: What is a hard lesson you have had to learn and how did you become more teachable through it?

For both: What is something difficult you have learned that you now love?

HUDDLE UP:

This month, challenge your family to think of a new game or activity that the family can learn together.
