

LET'S TALK ABOUT:

DISCOVERY

Dad: What do you want to discover, and how can you learn about this new topic?

Child: What's the most important thing you've ever discovered?

For both: In your own words, how would you define discovery?

HUDDLE UP:

Gather with your family and plan a trip to the library to check out a book on your favorite topic and discover more about that topic!

PRO TIP:

Plan a trip to a nature center as a family to discover some unique plants/animals/insects that are right in your own backyard.
