READING INVENTORY

- The Reading Inventory is a low-stakes, classroom-based assessment designed to evaluate students' reading ability, monitor their reading progress, and match students to books at their reading level.
- The Reading Inventory is taken on a computer and lasts about 20 minutes. The types of questions a student receives and the results that are reported are based upon the student's grade level and reading level.
- The results of a student's The Reading Inventory assessments are used in a number of ways. First, a student's score on the test is used to determine the student's reading ability compared to grade-level performance standards. These determinations can help tailor appropriate reading instruction and set goals. The results of subsequent The Reading Inventory tests are then used to monitor progress over time. Student results are also used to match students to texts at their reading level, which helps to make reading rewarding, constructive, and enjoyable.

- Test Administration – 4 times a year (August, October, January, May)

DIBELS (DYNAMIC INDICATORS OF BASIC EARLY LITERACY SKILLS)

DIBELS Fluency is an assessment our teachers will use to monitor student fluency progression.

DIBELS Benchmarks will be conducted two times a year (Fall, Winter, Spring) – Students read three fluency passages and receive the median score

DIBELS Progress Monitoring will be conducted every 3 weeks after the first benchmark.

Student DIBELS data will be used to inform instruction.

DIBELS EXPECTATIONS

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF GEORGIA MILESTONES?

- The Georgia Milestones Assessment System is designed to provide information about how well students are mastering the state-adopted content standards in the core content areas of English Language Arts, mathematics, science, and social studies.
- Georgia Milestones is designed to provide students with critical information about their own achievement and their readiness for their next level of learning – be it the next grade, the next course, or endeavor (college or career).
- Informing parents, educators, and the public about how well students are learning important content is an essential aspect of any educational assessment and accountability system. Parents, the public, and policy makers, including local school districts and boards of education, can use the results as a barometer of the quality of educational opportunity provided throughout the state of Georgia.
- Georgia Milestones serves as a key component of the state’s accountability system – the College and Career Ready Performance Index (CCRPI).

Welcome to Experience Online Testing Georgia!

This practice site lets students see what testing online is like. Parents and educators are welcome to try it too. The items on the demonstration tests are general and are organized into three grade bands: Grades 3 – 5, Grades 6 – 8, and High School in the content areas of English Language Arts, Mathematics, Science, and Social Studies. The items do not necessarily represent the specific grade-level content that students learn daily in their classrooms. Included in this site are examples of new types of test items that are being field tested this spring. Items that are field tested do not impact the scores of students. The primary purpose is to let students experience, firsthand, the functionality of the online testing platform. The sample tests are not graded, so have fun!

Georgia Milestones Assessment System

The Georgia Milestones Assessment System (Georgia Milestones) is a comprehensive summative assessment program spanning grades 3 through high school.

Georgia Milestones measures how well students have learned the knowledge and skills outlined in the state-adopted content standards in English Language Arts, mathematics, science, and social studies.

Students in grades 3 through 8 take an end-of-grade assessment in English Language Arts and mathematics while students in grades 5 and 8 are also assessed in science and social studies. High school students take an end-of-course assessment for each of the ten courses designated by the State Board of Education.

Features the Georgia Milestones Assessment System include:

- open-ended (constructed-response) items in English Language Arts and mathematics (all grades and courses);
- a writing component (in response to passages read by students) at every grade level and course within the English Language Arts assessment;
- norm-referenced items in all content areas and courses, to complement the criterion-referenced information; and
- transition to online administration over time. The administration considered the primary mode of administration and paper-based administration until the transition is complete.

What is the purpose of Georgia Milestones?

The Georgia Milestones Assessment System is designed to provide information about how well students are mastering the state-adopted content standards in the core content areas of English Language Arts, mathematics, science, and social studies.

Importantly, Georgia Milestones is designed to provide students with critical information about their own achievement and their readiness for their next level of learning – be it the next grade, the next course, or endeavor (college or career).

Informing parents, educators, and the public about how well students are learning important content is an essential aspect of any educational assessment and accountability system. Parents, the public, and policy makers, including local school districts and boards of education, can use the results as a barometer of the quality of educational opportunity provided throughout the state of Georgia.

As such, Georgia Milestones serves as a key component of the state's accountability system – the College and Career Ready Performance Index (CCRPI).

Georgia Milestones End of Grade Study/Resource Guides

The Study/Resource Guides are intended to serve as a resource for parents and students. They contain practice questions and learning activities for each content area. The standards identified in the Study/Resource Guides address a sampling of the state-mandated content standards.

For the purposes of day-to-day classroom instruction, teachers should consult the wide array of resources that can be found at www.georgiastandards.org.

ITEM 4: EXTENDED WRITING-RESPONSE

WRITING TASK

People have made, used, and saved money differently in the past and in the present.

Think about the ideas in BOTH passages, and then write an informational piece in your own words explaining the different ways people use money.

Be sure to use information from BOTH passages to support your informational piece.

Writer's Checklist

Be sure to:

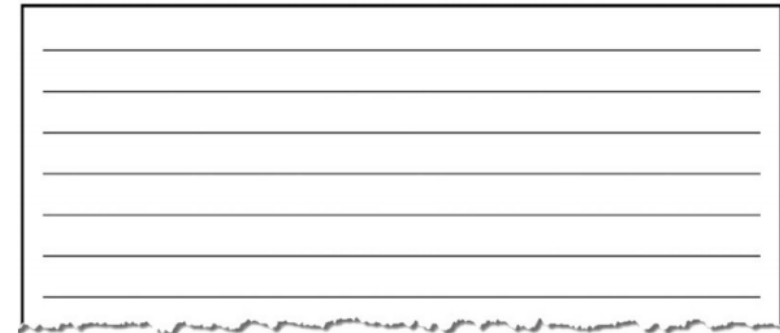

- Introduce the topic clearly.
- Use information from the two passages so that your piece includes important details.
- Develop the topic in a clear order, with facts, definitions, and details related to the topic.
- Identify the passages by title or number when using details or facts directly from the passages.
- Develop your ideas clearly and use your own words, except when quoting directly from the passages.
- Use linking words to connect ideas.
- Use clear language and vocabulary.
- Have a strong conclusion that supports the information presented.
- Check your work for correct usage, grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation.

Now write your informational piece on your answer document. Refer to the Writer's Checklist as you write and proofread your piece.

4. Writing Task (Write your piece here.)

Be sure to:

- Introduce the topic clearly.
- Use information from the two passages so that your piece includes important details.
- Develop the topic in a clear order, with facts, definitions, and details related to the topic.
- Identify the passages by title or number when using details or facts directly from the passages.
- Develop your ideas clearly and use your own words, except when quoting directly from the passages.
- Use linking words to connect ideas.
- Use clear language and vocabulary.
- Have a strong conclusion that supports the information presented.
- Check your work for correct usage, grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation.

GMA WRITING – INFORMATIONAL RUBRIC

SEVEN-POINT, TWO-TRAIT RUBRIC

Trait 1 for Informational/Explanatory Genre

Writing Trait	Points	Criteria
Idea Development, Organization, and Coherence This trait examines the writer's ability to effectively establish a controlling idea and to support the idea with evidence from the text(s) read and to elaborate on the idea with examples, illustrations, facts, and other details in order. The writer must integrate the information from the text(s) into his/her own words and arrange the ideas and supporting evidence (from text that they have read) in order to create cohesion for an informative/explanatory essay.	4	The student's response is a well-developed informative/explanatory text that examines a topic in depth and conveys ideas and information clearly based on text as a stimulus. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Effectively introduces a topic Effectively develops the topic with multiple facts, definitions, and details Groups related ideas together to give some organization to the writing Effectively uses linking words and phrases to connect ideas within categories of information Provides a strong concluding statement or section
	3	The student's response is a complete informative/explanatory text that examines a topic and presents information based on text as a stimulus. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Introduces a topic Develops the topic with some facts, definitions, and details Groups some related ideas together to give partial organization to the writing Uses some linking words to connect ideas within categories of information, but relationships may not always be clear Provides a concluding statement or section
	2	The student's response is an incomplete or oversimplified informative/explanatory text that cursorily examines a topic based on text as a stimulus. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Attempts to introduce a topic Attempts to develop a topic with too few details, but not all of these are supported or relevant to the topic Ineffectively groups some related ideas together Uses few linking words to connect ideas, but not all ideas are well connected to the topic Provides a weak concluding statement or section
	1	The student's response is a weak attempt to write an informative/explanatory text that examines a topic based on text as a stimulus. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> May not introduce a topic or topic is unclear May not develop a topic May be too brief to group any related ideas together May not use any linking words to connect ideas Provides a minimal or no concluding statement or section
	0	The student will receive a condition code for various reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Blank Copied Too Limited to Score/Illegible/Incomprehensible Non-English/Foreign Language Off Topic/Off Task/Offensive
	0	The student will receive a condition code for various reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Blank Copied Too Limited to Score/Illegible/Incomprehensible Non-English/Foreign Language Off Topic/Off Task/Offensive

Writing Trait	Points	Criteria
Language Usage and Conventions This trait examines the writer's ability to demonstrate control of sentence formation, usage, and mechanics as embodied in the grade-level expectations of the language standards.	3	The student's response demonstrates full command of language usage and conventions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has clear and complete sentence structure, with appropriate range and variety Shows knowledge of language and its conventions when writing Any errors in usage and conventions do not interfere with meaning*
	2	The student's response demonstrates partial command of language usage and conventions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has complete sentences, with some variety Shows some knowledge of language and its conventions when writing Has minor errors in usage and conventions with no significant effect on meaning*
	1	The student's response demonstrates weak command of language usage and conventions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Has fragments, run-ons, and/or other sentence structure errors Shows little knowledge of language and its conventions when writing Has frequent errors in usage and conventions that interfere with meaning*
	0	The student will receive a condition code for various reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Blank Copied Too Limited to Score/Illegible/Incomprehensible Non-English/Foreign Language Off Topic/Off Task/Offensive

*Students are responsible for language conventions learned in their current grade as well as in prior grades. Refer to the language skills for each grade to determine the grade-level expectations for grammar, syntax, capitalization, punctuation, and spelling. Also refer to the "Language Progressive Skills, by Grade" chart for those standards that need continued attention beyond the grade in which they were introduced.

GMA WRITING – EXEMPLAR A

In "The Story of Money" the people used money differently than we use money today. They traded their own goods to buy food or clothes. In the story it said "People began to understand that they needed something else to use for money other than trading goods to other people." For a long time this caused lots of problems. Also in the story it said "People searched for a different kind of money." They started making coins. They could be made out of silver, copper or gold. The passage said "The small round coins fit nicely into pockets. A person could save that money for years. Today, people still use paper money and coins. Now people can buy things wherever they are sold. In the text "Make Your Money Work for You" it is all about saving, spending and giving money. In the passage it says people save money to buy things they need.

Children can have a savings box, spending box, and a giving box. In your spending box you can have money you are going to spend. In your giving box you can give money to charities. These details prove how we spent money.

GMA WRITING – EXEMPLAR A SCORE AND COMMENTARY

Response Scores:

Idea Development, Organization, and Coherence: 4

Language Usage and Conventions: 3

DOC: 4

- The topic is effectively introduced with a summary of some facts taken from “The Story of Money.”
- Related ideas about the past and present forms and uses of money are grouped together.
- The topic is effectively developed through the use of assorted facts and details from both of the passages (“People began to understand that they needed something else to use for money other than trading goods to other people,” “The small round coins fit nicely into pockets,” “. . . people save money to buy things they need,” “Children can have a savings box, spending box, and a giving box”).
- The response effectively uses linking words and phrases to connect ideas (“Also,” “Today”).
- While brief, the student does provide a concluding statement (“These details prove how we spent money”).

LUC: 3

- Clear and complete sentences are used, and some variety in sentence structure and length is shown. The response consists of mostly simple sentences with a few complex sentences included.
- Errors do not interfere with meaning.

GMA WRITING – EXEMPLAR B

In the past they would of do it really diffrent than the present .In the past they would trade stuff to get what they want. In the past your hole life would be trading stuff for something you want.You would be trading lots of comman animals.In the present you buy stuff to get what you really want to get.Also in the present you don't have to trade stuff.In the present you can save money to buy what you really need.In the past there weren't any jobs to save money out of.In the present you also can save money many diffrent kind of ways like in a tiny little box you can save up.

GMA WRITING – EXEMPLAR B SCORE AND COMMENTARY

Response Scores:

Idea Development, Organization, and Coherence: 2
Language Usage and Conventions: 2

DOC: 2

- There is an attempt to introduce a topic (“In the past they would of do it really diffrent than the present”).
- There is an attempt to develop the topic with too few details, many of which are vague (“your hole life would be trading stuff for something you want,” “you can save money to buy what you really need”) or irrelevant (“there weren’t any jobs to save money out of”).
- Ideas are ineffectively grouped together. Most of the response is a list-like comparison of how trading in the past is different from using money now.
- A few linking words are present (“Also”), but they do not always connect ideas well.
- There is no attempt at a conclusion.

LUC: 2

- Sentences are complete, but there is little variety in structure. Simple, choppy structures are used repeatedly. Some sentences could be condensed into a single sentence to improve readability (“In the present you buy stuff to get what you really want to get. Also in the present you don’t have to trade stuff”).
- Errors in spelling, usage, and conventions (“they would of do it really diffrent,” “hole life,” “comman”) do not significantly interfere with meaning.

GMA WRITING – EXEMPLAR C

In the past they could barley save any money because they didn't have much money but today we have a lot of money so we can save.

GMA WRITING – EXEMPLAR C SCORE AND COMMENTARY

Response Scores:

Idea Development, Organization, and Coherence: 1
Language Usage and Conventions: 1

DOC: 1

- A topic related to saving money can be inferred.
- The response is too brief to provide development or organization.
- There is no conclusion.

LUC: 1

- The one sentence present is a run-on.
- The response is too brief to demonstrate command of language and conventions.

GMA WRITING – EXEMPLAR D

Did you know people used to trade to get what they wanted?

Well they did! Since people didn't have money in the olden days they would trade to get what they wanted. For example, a fisherman wants a fishing rod from a salesman and give him fish.

Now since money is made people use money instead. People do lots of things with money, spend, save, and trade! Money is probably the most wanted thing on Earth! In the United States the highest bill is a 100 dollar bill. But it used to be a 1,000 dollar bill!

Saving money is really hard.

But it is important. Say if you have 300$ and you buy an Xbox 1.

But you saving up to 350$. But the console didn't work and there were no refunds.

You had to do it all over again. It's even hard for me to save money. I hope you learned something new.

GMA WRITING – EXEMPLAR D SCORE AND COMMENTARY

Response Scores:

Idea Development, Organization, and Coherence: 3

Language Usage and Conventions: 3

DOC: 3

- A topic is introduced (“Did you know people used to trade to get what they wanted?”).
- The response develops the topic with facts and details from the passages (“Since people didn’t have money in the olden days they would trade to get what they wanted,” “Saving money . . .”).
- Related ideas are grouped together to give partial organization to the writing. After the topic is introduced, there is a paragraph about trading, a paragraph about money, and a paragraph about saving; however, there are some extraneous ideas included (“But the console didn’t work and there were no refunds”).
- Some linking words are used to connect ideas (“For example,” “Now”).
- A concluding statement is present (“I hope you learned something new”).

LUC: 3

- Sentence structure is clear and complete with appropriate range and variety. There are some fragments that occur when the student attempts to use structure to enhance style; however, there are numerous examples of successful simple and complex sentences.
- Errors in spelling and usage do not interfere with meaning.

GMA WRITING – EXEMPLAR E

Have you ever wondered how people used and saved money in the past and how it is different from the present. Well I am going to tell you how.

In the past people used to have to trade their stuff to get other things they really needed like clothes. today all you have to do is give coins or paper money. In the past you had to use salt or grains if you move you might have to use beads, tools, or shells. Now most places use money. In the past it was hard to carry the stuff you used to buy things. Now money is as light as a feather. Now do you see how big of a difference there is.

GMA WRITING – EXEMPLAR E SCORE AND COMMENTARY

Response Scores:

Idea Development, Organization, and Coherence: 2
Language Usage and Conventions: 2

DOC: 2

- The student attempts to introduce a topic (“Have you ever wondered how people used and saved money in the past and how it is different from the present. Well I am going to tell you how”).
- The topic is developed with a few details, not all of which are overly relevant (“... salt or grains if you move you might have to use beads, tools, or shells;” “money is as light as a feather”).
- Ideas are ineffectively grouped together. The student presents a rambling series of thoughts as to how people used to trade items followed by a few statements about money.
- A few linking words and phrases are used, but they do not connect ideas to the topic well (“In the past,” “Now”).
- There is a concluding statement, though it is minimal (“Now do you see how big of a difference there is”).

LUC: 2

- All sentences are complete but repetitive in structure and subject/verb choice.
- Errors in usage and conventions (incorrect punctuation on the question that opens the essay or missing capitalization at the beginning of the second sentence in the second paragraph) do not significantly interfere with meaning.

CANVAS

Due to the inclement weather that Paulding County has experienced in previous years, we will be providing some make-up learning time through a digital learning format during inclement weather.

Teachers will provide assignments via Canvas, our learning management system, for students to complete if inclement weather occurs. Teachers will also be available for virtual "office hours" through Canvas should students or parents have questions on the material or need assistance with their learning during this time.
