Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing

What is ACCESS?

It is a test to determine the English proficiency level for all English Learners (ELs)

It helps the teachers help the students with English.

Assessing students' academic language abilities in English include

Listening		Process, understand, interpret and evaluate spoken language in a variety of situations
Reading		Process, understand, interpret and evaluate written language, symbols and text with understanding and fluency
Writing		Engage in written communication in a variety of situations for a variety of purposes and audiences
Speaking		Engage in oral communication in a variety of situations for a variety of purposes and audiences

Anchored in English Language Development (ELD) Standards

More Information about ACCESS

- January 22nd – March 2nd
- Ms. Criswell will help the children practice, but they cannot study for it.
- Test results will be delivered in May.
