

LET'S TALK ABOUT:

Making Good Choices

Dad: What are three choices that you will make today?

Child: (Answer) What's the best choice you've ever made?

Dad: The best choice I've ever made was _____ because _____. But I've made bad choices too, like _____. When have you made a bad choice?

Child: (Answer) What did you learn from your bad choices?

Dad: I've learned _____. Every choice has a consequence—good or bad. What happened when you made a bad choice?

Child: (Answer) How can I make good choices?

Dad: What matters most is _____. Think about what will happen after you make your choice. Will it be good or bad? You're responsible for your consequences. But I'm always here to help you learn to make good choices.

HUDDLE UP:

Include your kid(s) in making some decisions this month—explaining any values, reasons, consequences, or options.
